

The Role of Legal Clinical Methods in Promoting Financial Literacy and Education

Y. Khvatsik, L. Krasnitskaya,

K. Harbuzava

Valencia, 11-15 July, 2011

Why did you choose this workshop?

Name of the project:

“Improvement of financial culture of vulnerable people in Minsk”

Necessity of the project:

- 1) public needs;
- 2) scientific interest;
- 3) will of sharing the experience.

Realization of the project

6 months of the duration

target groups are students, elderly people (totally 50)

Preparation of the manual with 5 lessons

Topics

- Consumer credit.
- Insurance.
- Bank deposit.
- Safe use of bank cards.
- Family budget.

What we have done

- ✓ 15 interactive seminars
- ✓ Involving financial experts (representatives of a bank and insurance company)
- ✓ Essay competition “What do we know about financial culture?” among students

Outcomes of the project:

- actuality of the issue;
- usefulness of gained knowledge and skills;
- will to continue financial education.

Cases of study

Questions for debating

Are the raised issues actual in your countries?

Are lawyers enough competent to provide financial literacy?

Can this project become a specialised clinic or street law programme?

Contacts:

Legal Clinic, Belarus State Economic University,

Yuliya Khvatsik,

e-mail: yulia-sevich@yandex.ru

Thank you!